Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.No. 20427 of 1997

Oral order:

Claiming to have obtained adequate marks at the selection for drivers in the respondent-Corporation, but yet denied the appointment as a Driver, the writ petition is filed.

The respondent-Corporation has filed a counter affidavit through its Chief Law Officer. The counter states that the petitioner had applied for the post of a Driver and was called for the driving test on 21-07-1997. He secured 55.67 per cent marks in Driving Test. The Corporation notified 155 vacancies of Drivers. The petitioner belongs to the O.C. category. The last candidate selected in the O.C. category out of 155 vacancies, secured 57.33 marks. Since the petitioner secured lesser marks, he could not be accommodated in the vacancy for the O.C. category.

The petitioner does not dispute this factual assertion by the respondents-Corporation.

In the aforesaid circumstances, there are no merits. The writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
